

Over-The-Counter Items That Do NOT Require a Prescription

Bandages and First Aid items

Birth Control (Over the Counter)

Blood Pressure Kits

Canes and Walkers

Contact Lens Solution

Denture Products

Diabetes Testing Supplies

Durable Medical Equipment

Heating Pads

Hot, Cold and Steam Packs

Incontinence Products

Insulin, needles, alcohol swabs

Orthopedic Aids

Pregnancy and Fertility Testing Kits

Splints, Support, Braces

Thermometers

Over-The-Counter Drugs and Medicines That DO Require a Prescription

The following are examples, and do not represent an exhaustive list. In general, any Over-The-Counter drug or medicine, which must be applied, swallowed, inserted, or inhaled requires a prescription.

Acid Controllers

Allergy and Sinus Medication

Antibiotic Products

Anti-gas and Diarrhea Medication

Anti-Itch/ Insect Bites

Antiparasite Treatments

Baby Rash Ointments and Creams

Cold, Cough and Flu Medicine

Digestives Aids

Feminine Anti-Fungal/ Anti-Itch

Hemorrhoid Medication

Laxatives

Pain Relief (Aspirin, Tylenol, etc.)

Respiratory Treatments

Sleep Aids/Sedatives

Stomach Remedies